“Through the pines of the north the dark Wind-singer strode,
As he hummed the first notes of a gale ;
While a ghostly white cloud of cold dust swept the road,
Rushing downwards to smother the vale.”

—JAMES MCCARROLL.

"I, the lion-throated,
The shaker of mountains !
I, the invincible,
Lasher of oceans !

I, the invincible,
March, the earth-shaker ;
March, the sea-lifter,
March, the sky-render "

—ISABELLA VALANCEY CRAWFORD.

"This region is as lavish of its flowers
As Heaven of its primrose blooms by night."

—CHARLES MAIR.

'But there's something abroad in the air,
Perchance 'tis the spirit of spring,
That fills me with fancies
Of blue skies and pansies,
And songs that the meadow brooks sing''

—W. W. CAMPBELL.

"This, my friend, shall be our part
In this summer scheme of our,
Just to grow a summer heart.

Fear to hurt and fear to thwart,
Clearer sense of mighty Powers
This, my friend, shall be our part.
Just to grow a summer heart"

SIR RANUS.

"The apple harvest days are here,
The boding apple harvest days,
And down the flaming valley ways
The foresters of time draw near.

The apple harvest time is here,
The tender apple harvest time;
A sheltering calm, unknown at prime,
Settles upon the brooding year."

BLISS CARMAN.

c.w. Jefferys. 92.

" Against the distant purple hills
Rich autumn tints are glowing;
Its blood-red wine the sumach spills,
Deep hues of carmine showing

Haste to the woods! put books away,
They'll wait the tardy comer;
For them there's many a winter day,
But brief's our Indian Summer!"

FIDELIS.

Faith, science, doubt profound,
Searching for ampler knowledge from afar,
By turns have soared to question every star,
Have probed the earth to tell us whence we are,
And whither bound.

Dim faithless world, roll on
Into thy future, while the Christ-son seeds
Grow, not to lifeless words, but living deeds;
And living souls give utterance thus to creeds
To Christ's own."

DANIEL WILSON.

COLLECT FOR DOMINION DAY.

"Father of Nations! Help of the feeble hand,
Strength of the strong ' to whom the nations kneel '
Stay and Destroyer, at whose just command
Earth's kingdoms tremble, and her empires reel '
Who dost the low uplift, the small make great,
And dost abase the ignorantly proud,
Of our scant people mould a mighty state,
To the strong stern, to Thee in meekness bowed '
Father of Unity, make this people one '
Weld, interfuse them in the patriot's flame,
Whose forging on Thine anvil was begun
In blood life shed to purge the common shame
That so our hearts, the fever of faction done,
Banish old feud in our young nation's name,"

-CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS.

"Then, to night, I will chase my sorrow, with that last wild gust of December :

The gloom where I sit is gone, and the gleams of the morning appear :

The past shall be buried anew in the dust of the smouldering ember,

For the future rises before me in the flush of the dawning year."
